

Hayes-Baraja Nuptials Are Read at Wayfarers Chapel

Miss Marilyn Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hayes, 1015 W. 227th St., Torrance, became the bride of John Manuel Baraja, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemente Barajas, 1552 W. Carson St., Torrance, in a 6 o'clock ceremony at the Wayfarers Chapel on Sept. 1.

Mr. Hayes walked to the altar with his daughter and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned on empire lines. Sequins outlined the scoop neckline. The lace edged illusion veil was secured by a flat bandeau of lace and sequins. White carnations, sweetheart roses and orchids formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Josie Barajas was the maid of honor. She wore a pink taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Vera Quinones, Dorothy Burrell, and Anita Fernandez. All wore green taffeta gowns and carried pink carnations.

Rudy Quinones stood as best man.

The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the marriage. A reception was held at the Retail Clerks' Hall in Harbor City.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Malibu and are now at home at 1344 W. Carson St.

Junior Club Begins Year; Hears Reports

Torrance Junior Woman's Club held its first business meeting of the fall season at the clubhouse on Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 8 o'clock, under the leadership of Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, president. Many enthusiastic reports were given concerning the summer activities and equally as many plans were presented for the coming fall and winter months.

Mrs. Clifford Trezise, first vice-president, began the business discussion by presenting the tentative list of programs for the year for club approval.

First of these programs will be a "Come as Your Favorite Record" party to be held Sept. 23 as a get-acquainted party. In October there will be a discussion by Mrs. L. A. McCoy, District Federation Director, on the Federation of Woman's Clubs following the business meeting and as a social presentation by the Drama Section of the club and recognition of the provisionals; November will be the month for the Handicraft Fair; December will be a full month with a Children's Christmas Party featuring the Bob Baker Puppets, a Christmas Dinner-Dance in the Crystal Room at the Palms and a Christmas Party for the members at the regular business meeting.

In January the co-ordinators are planning a party for the Junior members; February is the month to be entertained by the American Field Service students at the business meeting and the social for the month will be a Dessert Card Party.

In March there will be election of officers, with a Barn Dance later in the month for the fun time; in April is the Installation Banquet with the Manhattans, a barbershop quartet, as entertainment; scheduled for May is the annual "Spool and Bobbin" Fashion Show where the members model clothes which they have made and in June will be the Initiation Dinner for the new members with Louise Sooy, who is a member of the Art faculty of UCLA, speaking on personality and dress.

Continuing with the reports, Mrs. A. R. Felando, Jr., third vice-president, reported on the successful ways and means projects completed during the summer and the development of the current projects which are restaurant ticket book sales and Christmas card sales.

The District Philanthropy

was voted upon, with the "Adopt a Child" program taking the most votes followed by Muscular Dystrophy and Cerebral Palsy next and the Junior Blind and Cystic Fibrosis last.

It was voted upon to hold a Folio Clinic on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 29, at the Benstead Plunge; and the members also chose to use the Sears Foundation Award money for "Build a Better Community" may purchase trees to be placed between the civic center and neighboring industry.

Following the meeting an interesting program on the history of Torrance Juniors was presented with Mrs. Lee E. Allen telling of the origin of the
